

Corbett's Conundrums

7th February

A is a point on both circles. The smaller circle is inside the larger circle.

The area between the circles is 20cm^2

The radii differ by 2cm, find the radius of the smaller circle in terms of π .

