

Corbett's Conundrums

2nd May

The parallel sides of an isosceles trapezium are 1cm and 7cm.
The diagonals are at right-angles.

Calculate the distance between the parallel sides and the lengths of the other sides.

