

Corbett's Conundrums

20th November

Choose an integer less than 10.
Multiply by 8547.
Then multiply your result by 13.

Repeat for two other numbers.

What do you notice? Explain why this happens.

Devise a similar question.

