

Corbett's Conundrums

9th November

The distance between two towns A and B is 360 miles.
A cyclist leaves A for B at an average speed of 12mph
Another cyclist leaves B for A at an average speed of 20mph.

Where and when will the two cyclists meet?

