

18th July

Corbettmaths

Triangles ABC and DEF are similar.

Find the length of EF

Find the size of angle EDF

What percentage of a distribution lies between the highest value and the upper quartile?

How is the interquartile range calculated?

The cost of a trip is directly proportional to the square root of the distance.

The cost is £600 when the distance is 900 miles.

Find a formula connecting the cost, C , and the distance, d .

Find the cost of a 400 mile trip.